GERMAN MONEY STIRS BLACKS. Mississippi Negroes Being Helped To

Dodge Army Draftt. JACKSON, Miss., April 7 .- Charges that German money is being used to encourage Mississippi Negroes to evade the selective draft are made in a report filed at the adjutant general's office by F. K. Ethridge, state inspector of local exemption boards.

The report declares it has been almost impossible to get Negro registrants to respond to the draft and that C. H. Mason, pastor of a Negro church at Lexington, Miss., known as "The Church of God in Christt," has been preaching pro-German sermons and advising Negroes to resist the Three weeks ago according to the inspector's report, a foreigner giving the name of Dirmitrims Glannokulion conducted a week of meetings at the church, and that while in town received a message in code.

The inspector's report said: "The Church of God in Christ' has headquarters in Los Angeles. In August last year a $25,000 church was built at Lexington for which local Negroes furnished only a small part of the building fund, the report says, and also that the pastor, hitherto an obscure Negro preacher, recently erected a $25,000 residence in Memphs.-Buffalo News.
